Hayes Valley Art Works October 22nd Event Raises $6,500 for Continued Programming!

London Breed along with HVAW & HVNA volunteers and members of the community at the October 22nd canvas event.

Hayes Valley Art Works hosted an art event fundraiser on October 22, 2016. This art event featured 9 “canvases” that were, in truth, discarded tablecloths from the San Francisco Hotel industry that were destined for landfill. Among the artists were Jeremy Fish, San Francisco’s current artist-in-residence, and Stanley Mouse, known for his psychedelic concert posters.

Participating artists included: Johnna Arnold, Michelle Echenique, Daniel Farnan, Jeremy Fish, Paulette Humanbeing, Stanley Mouse, Kate Rhoades, Emma Spertus, & Emily Wick

This event was sponsored by HVNA business members Fig & Thistle and Johnny Doughnuts and the auction was hosted by District 5 Supervisor, London Breed.

Thanks to generous neighbors and the help of artists like Jeremy Fish, HVAW was able to raise $6,500! Through programming events like this as well as donor contributions, Hayes Valley Art Works hopes to be able to continue to support art shows and community work through the next 6 months.
