17th Annual Merchants' Block Party

Friday, December 1st, from 6-9pm will be an evening of shopping and entertainment along Hayes and neighboring streets. Many merchants will be having live entertainment within their shops, as well as refreshments. In keeping with their traditional support for the neighborhood, many stores will also have silent auction items and/or donation boxes, with all proceeds going to Hayes Valley Community Partners.

This festive annual event brings out neighbors and others to see Holiday offerings in the shops, eat at local restaurants and participate in our sense of community. Other planned activities include a gospel choir strolling, carol singing at Patricia's Green, cookies and hot chocolate at the Green, and the SFFD fire truck collecting donated toys.

Let's all get out, have a good time, and support our merchants!

Happy participants in the Hayes Valley Community Partners Halloween Festivities at Patricia's Green. See article on Page 4 for a description of upcoming events.

Time has flown by. It seems we were just volunteering at John Muir before classes started, and now we've set the clocks back and Halloween is behind us. There are many things in store for the neighborhood, even as many accomplishments have been made. Very important to the neighborhood is the passage of the Market/Octavia Plan. Over 6 years of input from people throughout the Plan area have been incorporated into this document, now being considered by the Planning Commission. Please see the article on page 3 for more details.

This issue contains information on many different items in and around our neighborhood. I would like to single out one, and add my personal thanks to all who participated in the first-ever Hayes Valley Neighborhood Association/Hayes Valley Community Partners awards event on October 29th. I was very proud to represent the organization before friends, neighbors, representatives from community organizations, city agencies and the Mayor's office, as well as Supervisor Ross Mirkarimi and Assemblyman Mark Leno.

While many proclamations and certificates were awarded to organizations and individuals throughout the area, I felt the biggest award was the involvement of those participating in the effort. Those attending represented every facet of our neighborhood (and beyond), and it was truly inspiring to be in one place with such a stellar group.

While not everyone can be as involved as some, we can all at least be members of the neighborhood organization, provided with information and given a voice in decisions. If you haven't

I look forward to seeing you around the 'hood, and at our very important November 30th meeting.

Upcoming Opportunities

Is it too soon to think about summer? Maybe not. Youth in the area are invited to think about enrolling in a sailing program in 2007! There will be an orientation on March 25 from 2-5pm which would be a great event to bring some kids to and give them a taste of sailing. Scholarships may be available. There will be classes throughout Spring and Summer 2007. The program is offered through San Francisco State University's Recreation and Leisure Study's Department. Plan ahead. More information will be available in January.

NERT and Neighborliness

NERT (Neighborhood Emergency Response Team) reminds us that we should review the contents of our Earthquake Kits periodically. What better time than as we approach the holidays? Take the time now to ensure you have the proper supplies of canned food, protein bars, water and other ingredients. As you rotate your food supplies, consider donating the current contents to those in need. In this way, we continue a NERT principle of neighbors helping neighbors.

The next NERT meeting is Thursday, November 30th at 6pm, in the community room at Hayes Valley South Apts, 403 Rose Street. Plan to go from there to the HVNA meeting just 3 blocks away at 7pm.

Hayes Valley Comes Together to Rejoice, Reflect & Reward

By Frances Neagley

It was a beautiful day - the sun was shining and there was a slight breeze. The setting was equally beautiful - Jim Warshell and Gail Baugh's house on Hayes Street. The occasion was special - a benefit celebrating the efforts of Hayes Valley Community Partners and Hayes Valley Neighborhood Association, and the 50th birthday of Richard Johnson. Assemblyman Mark Leno, Supervisor Bevan Duffy, Supervisor Ross Mirkarimi and other friends of Hayes Valley sponsored the event.

There was music and singing from Rhett Stuart, Horus Jack Tolson and Evilla Campbell. Food showcased local chefs from Absinthe, Arlequin, Café Grillade, Frjtes Belgium Fries, Paul K, Patxi's, Lovejoy's Tea Room and Market Street Safeway. Lynne Winslow and Associates helped organize the event and provided the wine. Floral arrangements were done by Torryne Choate, and the setting couldn't have been nicer. Costumes by Mario Chacon added dramatic flair to the festivities.

There were proclamations and certificates of appreciation from the Assembly, the Mayor and the Board of Supervisors in recognition of all the work done by HVNA and Hayes Valley Community Partners as well as special recognition for Richard Johnson and his involvement in the neighborhood. Further recognition from government agencies was given to Ms Ruby Johnson and the Western Addition Drill Team, and to Hayes Valley Neighborhood Parks Group.

All in all, it was a wonderful afternoon celebrating the neighborhood and the community. The money raised will benefit both Hayes Valley Community Partners and Hayes Valley Neighborhood Organization. (Photos from the event are available on our website: www.hayesvalleysf.org)

PTA Update

Earlier this year, a PTA was formed at John Muir Elementary School, the first time in at least 50 years (and maybe ever!) there has been a PTA at our neighborhood school. Since then, working with members of HVNA and Hayes Valley Community Partners, several successful volunteer workdays and fundraisers have taken place. With tremendous help from the California PUC, determined neighbors and local merchants, the PTA is off to a great start supporting our kids.

Did you know that about 50% of the students at John Muir are Hispanic? Did you know that neighborhood volunteers, and others, have re-painted the interior of the school? Did you know that the kids at the school have participated in a Halloween poster contest, and with help from the PTA everyone participating received a gift or award? Did you know that teachers at the school need your help with supplies and other items in order for our kids to get the best possible education? Well, now you know! For more details about the PTA at John Muir, and their wish list, visit the HVNA website, www.hayesvalleysf.org

Did you know that neighborhood volunteers, and others, have re-painted the interior of the school?

You don't have to be a parent to join the PTA, you just have to care about the kids and school in your neighborhood. Come to the next PTA meeting on December 7th at 4pm, at John Muir Elementary School, Page and Webster. Thank you for your support.

Collaboration Rewarded

In two separate award ceremonies held last month, the collaborative effort surrounding the removal of the Central Freeway and the building of Octavia Boulevard was honored by local organizations.

San Francisco Beautiful gave the effort the Friedel Klusmann award for 2006, its highest honor, singling out Robin Levitt, Jose Luis Moscovitch, Alan Jacobs and Elizabeth McDonald as representatives of the groups and individuals who came together to remove an unsafe structure fostering crime in its shadows and replaced it with a tree-lined boulevard and a park which every day draws a wide variety of people from throughout the area.

The Metropolitan Transportation Commission honored the same effort in a ceremony before their October meeting, presenting HVNA, the SF Transportation Authority and DPW with their Grand Award for 2006. In a fitting tribute, a portion of their ceremony featured a video which was filmed at the memorial for Patricia Walkup which was held on Patricia's Green in September.

As Paul Olsen, HVNA President, paraphrased in his remarks, Patricia was fond of saying that ordinary people can accomplish extraordinary things. That this extraordinary partnership, and accomplishment, received these honors is one more bit of proof. Starting with an idea, many individuals and agencies came together as never seen before, and we are the better for it. The idea, and the attention to detail in its implementation, shows what we can do together.

Congratulations to everyone in the neighborhood, and the region, who voted, organized, volunteered, attended meetings and have done so many things in support of improving the neighborhood. Thank you!

Walk to School Day

By students at John Muir Elementary School

October 4th was Walk to School Day, and our local elementary school joined this global effort to reinforce the importance of getting children to school safely. Health Advocate Mildred Hale was the organizer at John Muir. Besides the students who walk each day, the students who ride the school buses also participated. The busses dropped the students off 2 blocks from school (at Laguna and Page Streets). Teachers, staff members, parents and community members met the school buses at 8:11am and walked all the students to school. Staff from DPT participated in this event along with Supervisor Ross Mirkarimi and SFPD Officer Deely.

In the US, more students die as a result of motor vehicle accidents than from any disease. Almost a fourth of those are pedestrians. While walking and riding bikes to school keeps children healthy and alert, we need to be sure there are safe routes for our kids. This global effort to focus on the needs for safe routes was supported by the neighborhood, reminiscent of the effort to spotlight child safety on the first day of the school year.

Please be aware that there are many children in the neighborhood who walk or ride their bikes to school. Pay particular attention while driving in the area surrounding Page and Webster Streets.

Market & Octavia Plan Adoption Hearings

By Jason Henderson

The Planning Commission has begun its public hearings on the Market and Octavia Better Neighborhoods Plan. The first several hearings have been well attended and there is strong momentum for adopting the plan. Dozens of local residents spoke in favor of adoption on September 28th and October 26th and the hearings were very cordial and thoughtful. There has been much positive discussion of how beneficial this plan will be for Hayes Valley residents, as well as the important precedence this plan has for the rest of the City's planning process. Opposition to the plan has been mild and narrowly focused. Criticisms are limited to specific parcels or collections of parcels, and not levied at the plan. In fact, most "opponents" praise the overall plan. While this is a very good sign, HVNA has been actively reaching out to several other neighborhood groups to assuage minor concerns and to support efforts to strengthen historic preservation controls in the plan.

HVNA's Transportation and Planning Committee is meeting regularly to discuss the plan, and will continue to critically engage in a constructive and progressive dialogue with our neighbors, planning staff, and the planning commission to ensure this plan is enthusiastically adopted and becomes meaningful. In the meantime, the public hearings will continue with forthcoming "time certain" dates set for 6pm on November 9th, 16th, and December 7th. Please plan on attending at least one of these meetings and expressing enthusiastic support for this bold and innovative plan. The final hearing at the Planning Commission is scheduled for December 7th, and the plan will then move to the Board of Supervisors for final adoption, likely in early 2007. The HVNA meeting on November 30th will include a presentation by Planning staff, one week prior to the last scheduled meeting of the Commission.

Hayes Valley Community Partners Celebrates its Fifth Season of Goodwill

By Richard Johnson

The Fifth Season of Fostering a Safe and Caring Holiday Season 2006 is upon us and we began the annual event with the recent 2nd Annual Safe Halloween in Hayes Valley. Community members of all ages had a choice of four locations to visit and each site offered different activities. This marks the second year we have opened our neighborhood parks and community centers to community members to enjoy face painting, story telling, free candy, playing games, hearing music and making s'mores under the stars. As with all the events that the Hayes Valley Community Partners (HVCP) sponsor throughout the year, the mission is to bring neighbors together to foster a safe and caring community for all.

The next scheduled event for the 2006 season is the Giving Voice to the Season Thanksgiving Dinner and Talent Show on Sunday November 19th starting at 10 am. The event was started by Pastor Gillette of the Valley Christian Fellowship of San Francisco several years ago and returns this year to the Church's home at 738 Hayes. The day will start with a community dinner, church service and conclude with a talent show. As in the past two years, this is an event where HVCP joins with faith-based groups to bring our community together to give thanks. For more information contact Pastor Gillette at 863-8977.

The HVCP, of which HVNA is a partner, is a collaboration of community members, city departments, and non-profits. Our mission is to provide community events that bring neighbors together to foster a more safe and caring community. All through 2006 we held events ranging from a Black History event, Community Day at Koshland Park, monthly park cleanups, National Night Out. Members recently were involved in creating the John Muir PTA, participated in two John Muir Elementary School volunteer days, and just held the 2nd Annual Safe Halloween in Hayes Valley. To achieve our mission we strive to add both new partners and add to our yearly calendar of community events that lead to a better quality of life for all. This year we added the International High School, SF School Volunteers and the newly formed John Muir PTA. Donations, which are tax deductible, are always appreciated. To make a donation, contact Richard Johnson at safety@hayesvalleysf.org.

December will be filled with a month of community events.

The month starts with the 17th Annual Hayes Valley Merchants Block Party December 1st from 6-9pm featuring the 2nd Annual Giving Voice to the Season Community Sing Along at Patricia's Green in Hayes Valley (Hayes and Octavia). All merchants on Hayes Street between Laguna and Franklin and side streets of Laguna, Octavia and Gough between Fell and Grove invite the community to come shop, enjoy food, drink, and music and participate in a silent auction to benefit HVCP. Once again this year, there will be a SFDD toy drop off for children in need located at Hayes & Octavia. HVNA members will be providing cookies and hot chocolate at the Green again this year.

Fifth Annual Wreath and Card Making event by partner Hayes Valley Neighborhood Parks Group. The event will be located at the Hayes Valley South Community Room, 403 Rose St, on December 9th from 1-3pm. Come join community members as we come together for an afternoon of wreath and card making to distribute to community members. Food, drink and supplies will be provided. It's a great chance to work with the kids as they make cards, and wreaths, for others in the community.

Fifth annual food giveaway on December 21st and 22nd to community members recommended by their peers for building a safe and caring community. Last year we delivered over 200 food boxes to families making a positive change in their community. Cards made by youth in the area will accompany each box.

Fifth annual Community Luncheon will take place at the Korean American Center located at 745 Buchanan (at Grove) on December 23 from 11 am-3pm. Come join us as we bring our community together for a celebratory lunch, feature inspirational speakers and showcase talent in the 'hood. A toy give-away will follow at the Hayes Valley Playground located at Hayes & Buchanan.
